Jim Price, Chairman and CEO of Aero Financial States, "We are very pleased to be working with an innovative and dynamic company like PEI Worldwide. I've met the company's management team and visited their headquarters several times, giving me a full understanding of the potential of their products. They are truly a leader in the construction materials industry and we look forward to helping them build their company."

About PEI Worldwide.

PEI Worldwide manufactures and sells a range of new generation construction materials including Thura Block™, a composite form for structural wall systems that has up to 7 times the insulation level of concrete. Thura block™ also exceeds even the toughest flood, fire, hurricane and tornado safety standards for buildings up to ten stories. Thura Block™ is also price competitive with both concrete and stick wall (wood) construction. No internal stick wall forms and interior walls are needed for structures built with Thura block™.
