

Aero Financial Opens Las Vegas Nevada Branch Office

Las Vegas, NV--January 29, 2009—PRNEWSWIRE—Aero Financial, a strategic advisory and finance & marketing consulting firm, announced today that the company has continued its domestic expansion with the opening of its Las Vegas, Nevada office. The office is headed by Ed Carter. Prior to joining Aero Financial Ed worked 12 years in Strategic Investment Advisory positions. As owner of Wall Street Edge Investor Relations and host of the Wall Street Edge Radio Show which aired for nine consecutive years, Ed also held the position as Director of Shareholder Relations for a (NMS) Global Market NASDAQ Company.

Ed leverages over 22 years financial experience, having held his series 7 securities license, Nevada Real Estate, and all insurance licenses to specialize in the equities markets, mergers, acquisitions and investor relations. Ed has presented at numerous seminars and investment conferences around the country pertaining to investment banking and retail investment sales.

The Las Vegas office will lead Aero Financial's Strategic communications and consulting division. That division is charged with providing highly specialized communications and financial consulting services to public and private companies interested in growing their brand as well as their corporate image.

Jim Price, Chairman and CEO of Aero Financial states, "Ed brings a high level of practical knowledge and energy to our Las Vegas office. Through his leadership and existing contacts, I believe that this segment of Aero Financial's business will drastically impact the level of service we can offer our corporate clients."
