

Aero Financial Expands Executive Team in Sri Lanka

San Diego, CA—December 19, 2008—PRNewswire—Aero Financial announced today that the company has expanded its executive team in Sri Lanka with the appointment of both Gowri Shankar and Ahamed Hosni to the position of Executive Vice President.

Gowri Shanker is currently advisor to HRH Prince Mish'al Bin Abdul Aziz of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, a consultant and representative of the Gulf Bureau for research and economic consultations in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and holds the position of Divisional President Sri Lanka for The Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA).

Ahamed Hosni brings to Aero an impressive twenty year career in marketing, consulting, banking and business development in Sri Lanka, the Middle East and Southeast Asia. Mr. Hosni has been working with Mrs. Shanker for the past three years on the Saudi Arabia projects and has directly been involved with strategic advisory services in Dubai and Oman for the past fifteen years.

Jim Price, Chairman and CEO of Aero Financial states, "I am extremely pleased with the growth and the depth of our Executive Team in Sri Lanka. It is truly a confirmation of the Aero vision when such high-level professionals want to join our organization. I believe this well connected team will quickly put Aero Financial on the map throughout the Middle East and South East Asia."
